2. Liability for payment.—Every person who erects, exhibits, fixes or retains upon or over any land, building, wall, hoarding or structure any advertisement to public view in any manner whatsoever, in any place whether public or private, shall pay on every advertisement which is so erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed to public view a tax calculated at such rates and in such manner as mentioned in paragraph 1 above:

Provided that no tax shall be levied on any advertisement or a notice-

- (a) of public meeting, or
- (b) of an election to any legislative body or the Cantonment Board, St. Thomas Mount-cum-Pallavaram, or
- (c) of a candidature in respect of such an election:

Provided further than no such tax shall be levied on any advertisement which is not a sky sign and which—

- (a) is exhibited within the window of any building, or
- (b) relates to the trade or business carried on within the land or building upon or over which such advertisement is exhibited or to any sale or letting of such land or building or any effects therein or to any sale, entertainment or meeting to be held upon or in the same, or
- (c) relates to the name of the land or building upon or over which the advertisement is exhibited or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building, or
- (d) relates to the business of any railway company, or
- (e) is exhibited within any railway station or upon any wall or other property of a railway company except any portion of the surface of such wall or property fronting any street.
- Explanation 1.—The word 'structure' in this paragraph shall include any moveable board on wheels used as on advertisement or an advertisement medium.
- Explanation 2.—The expression 'sky-sign' shall, in this paragraph mean any advertisement, supported on or attached to any post, pole, standard, frame work or other support wholly or in part upon or over any land, building-wall or structure which or any part of which sky-sign, shall be visible against the sky from some point in any public place and includes all and every part of any such post, pole, standard, frame work or other support. The expression 'sky-sign' shall also include any balloon, parachute or other similar device employed wholly or in part for the purposes of any advertisement upon or over any land, building or structure or upon or over any public place but shall not include
 - (a) any flagstaff, pole, vane or weathercock, unless adapted or used wholly or in part for the purposes of any advertisement; or
 - (b) any sign, or any board, frame or other contrivance securely fixed to or on the top of the wall or parapet of any building or on the cornice or blocking course of any wall, or to the ridge or a roof:
 - Provided that such board, frame or other contrivance be of one continuous face and not open work, and do not extend in height more than one metre above any part of the wall, or parapet or ridge to, against or on which it is fixed or supported; or
 - (c) any advertisement relating to the name of the land or building upon or over which the advertisement is exhibited or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building; or

- (d) any advertisement relating exclusively to the business of a railway company and placed wholly upon or over any railway, railway station, yard, platform or station approach belonging to a railway company and so placed that it cannot fall into any street or public place; or
- (e) any notice of land or buildings to be sold, or let, placed upon such land or buildings.
- Explanation 3.—'Public place' means any place which is open to the use and enjoyment of the public, whether it is actually used or enjoyed by the public or not.
- 3. Permission to display advertisement.—(a) No advertisement shall after the levy of the tax under section 60 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 has been approved by the Central Government, be erected, exhibited, fixed, or retained upon or over any land, building, wall hoarding or structure within the St. Thomas Mount-cum-Pallavaram.
 - (b) The Cantonment Executive Officer shall not grant such permission if
 - (i) the advertisement contravenes any bye-law made by the Cantonment Board under clause (3) of section 282 and 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924, or
 - (ii) the tax, if any, due in respect of the advertisement has not been paid-
- (c) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-paragraph (b) above in the case of an advertisement liable to the advertisement tax, the Cantonment Executive Officer shall grant permission for the period to which the payment of the tax relates and no fee be charged in respect of such permission:

Provided that the above provisions shall not apply to any advertisement erected, exhibited, fixed or retained on the premises of a railway company relating to the business of a railway company.

- 4. Permission to become void.—The permission granted under paragraph 3 above shall become void in the following cases namely;—
 - (a) if the advertisement contravenes any bye-law made by the Board under clause (3) of section 282 and 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924;
 - (b) if any addition to the advertisement be made except for the purpose of making it secure under the direction of the Cantonment Executive Officer;
 - (c) if any material change be made in the advertisement or any part thereon;
 - (d) if the advertisement or any part thereof falls otherwise than through accident:
 - (e) if any addition or alteration be made to, or in the building wall or structure upon or over which the advertisement is erected, exhibited, fixed or retained if such addition or alteration involves the disturbance of the advertisement or any part thereof; and
 - (f) if the building, wall or structure upon or over which the advertisement is erected, is exhibited, fixed or retained be demolished or destroyed.
- 5. Contravention of provisions of Bye-Laws.—Where any advertisement shall be erected, exhibited, fixed or retained upon or over any land, building, wall, hoarding or structure in contravention of the provisions contained in paragraph 2 above or paragraph 3 above or after the written permission for the erection, exhibition, fixation or retention thereof for any period shall have expired or become void, the owner or person in occupation of such land, building wall, hoarding or structure shall be deemed to be the person who has erected, exhibited, fixed or retained such advertisement in such contravention unless he proves that such contravention was committed by a person not in his employment or under his control or was committed without his connivance.
- 6. Power to require owner or occupier to remove an advertisement.—If any advertisement be erected, exhibited, fixed or retained contrary to the provisions contained in paragraph 2 above or paragraph 3 above or after the written permission for the erection, exhibition, fixation or retention thereof for any period shall have expired or become void, the Cantonment Executive Officer may, by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of the land, building wall, hoarding or structure, upon or over which the same is erected, exhibited, fixed or retained to take down or remove such advertisement or may enter any building, land or property and have the advertisement removed.

7. Power to farm out collection of tax on advertisements.—The Cantonment Executive Officer may farm out the collection of any tax on advertisements leviable under paragraph 2 above for any period not exceeding one year at a time on such terms and conditions as may be provided for by bye-laws made under clause 3 of sections 282 and 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924.
